Please Join Us: Planning and Financing Affordable Housing in your Community

Do you represent a city, county, or other community partner interested in affordable housing? Minnesota Housing has tools you can use to successfully access Low Income Housing Tax Credits or other sources of funding for development activity in your community. Learn how possible sites in your community align with Minnesota Housing's strategic priorities, and what cities and counties can do to give developments in their community the best chance of success. We'll provide an overview of the interactive Community Profile tool, which provides data to help plan affordable housing in your community.

Join us for a Webinar on Wednesday, February 21 from 9:00-10:00 a.m. Register by noon on February 20.

2020 Qualified Allocation Plan Learning and Feedback Opportunities

We are also offering online and in-person sessions for you to learn more about Minnesota Housing's 2020 Qualified Allocation Plan (QAP), which will govern how we award 2020 Housing Tax Credits to developments. We publish the QAP a year in advance of applications being due to give communities and developers sufficient time to effectively align their applications with the allocation plan. We will release information in late February with more details on proposed 2020 QAP changes.
